JUDGING

The judging panel will consist of 3 x highly experienced judges following the International judging criteria.

The scoring scale will be set on the overall performance level of the competitors in each round and age division.

Competitors are to choose which division they wish to compete in and upload their best 1 Wave/Aerial/ Barrel/Worst Wipeout for the judges to evaluate.

The judging panel will be focusing on 3 key elements;

PROGRESSION + INNOVATION

The primary focus for the Judges will be progressive and innovative manoeuvres on each wave that is submitted.

POWER

The Secondary focal point that the judges will be looking for are visual signs that display power (Rail, Spray, & Speed) on each wave that is submitted.

PRECISION

The Final focal point that the judges will be looking for are timing and precision in the critical sections on each wave that is submitted.

COMPETITOR FILMING TIPS

It is recommended that competitors, parents, coaches and filmers alike manage their filming schedule. It is recommended to choose the best conditions to film by paying close attention to their chosen surf forecasting website. The event window has been expanded to 1 x 12 week round to give competitors ample time to choose the best conditions to film and submit their best submissions.

HOW WILL I KNOW WHERE I PLACED AFTER THE EVENT WINDOW FINISHES?

After the event window is closed for judging, all heat totals out of 10 will be shown in order of highest total to lowest on the event leader board for each division. Leaderboard can be found on the event website at www.australianjunioronlinesurfchampionships.com. Once results are published a secondary announcement of results will be sent via press release and uploaded to the event website news at www.australianjunioronlinesurfchampionships.com and the Surfing Australia website news at www.surfingaustralia.com at 10am on the morning of Thursday April 4, 2024. Competitors are encouraged to pay attention to the Surfing Australia Instagram page and the hashtag #onlinejnrs for updates.

SOCIAL MEDIA

The Australian Junior Online Surf Championships Powered by Mophie will be posting regularly throughout the event window via the Surfing Australia Instagram and Facebook social pages. Competitors are encouraged to follow and post to the Instagram hashtag #onlinejnrs so each competitor's journey can be followed throughout the event as well as be made aware of event updates.
